

COURSE SUMMARY

Food Labelling

...bridge to a better product

INTRODUCTION

Labeling a food product properly is as important to its legal compliance as manufacturing. Enhance your understanding of the regulations affecting the labeling of food products. Examine the legal naming of a food product, listing its ingredients (such as flavors), presenting its nutritional details, and making claims related to nutrient content, health effects, and production method.

OBJECTIVES

- 🍷 To recognise which information, by law, must appear on food products
- 🍷 To recognise the additional information which some food manufactures choose to place on food labels
- 🍷 To understand that foods sold loose are currently exempt from many of the food labelling laws

LEARNING OUTCOMES

On completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- 🍷 Understand the specific requirements of labeling from the legal perspective
- 🍷 Identify which statements should be made about the nutrients in food product
- 🍷 Learn about label statements that contribute to food safety and promote health and wellness
- 🍷 Evaluate existing food labels

TARGET PARTICIPANTS

- 🍷 R&D Managers/Executives
- 🍷 Regulatory Affairs Personnel
